

AGUA PRIETA ATTACK

A FAILURE, STARVING

VILLA ARMY LEAVES

OVER 300 VILLA DEAD COUNTED UPON THE DESERTED BATTLEFIELD

Calles Sends Large Force of Cavalry and Infantry Following Rear Guard of the Villa Forces; Small Detachment First Sent After Them Beaten Back by Villa; Americans Give Villistas Water.

D OUGLAS, Ariz., Nov. 2.—After two days and two nights of intermittent, unsuccessful battering at the fortifications of the Carranza fortifications of Agua Prieta, the army of Gen. Francisco Villa retired from the attack this morning early. Some of them retired during the night, others this morning early.

American army officers believe that Villa has given up the fight, after trying out and discovering the strength of the fortifications erected by Gen. P. Elias Calles, the Carranza commander.

Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 2.—The Villa dead left on the field when he retired today were 325. Two hundred were counted lying west of Agua Prieta and 136 east.

Calles's dead numbers 25 soldiers, with 76 wounded.

There are now three general officers the United States army on the border—Maj. Gen. Frederick Funston, commanding the southern military department; Brig. Gen. T. F. Davis, commanding the 45th infantry brigade, and Brig. Gen. James Parker, who ar-

Retirement Came Suddenly. That Villa's determination temporarily to withdraw his forces from the vicinity of Agua Prieta was sudden, was shown by the fact that his top lieutenants in command of the rapid fire

Villistas Furnished, Get Water.
Members of the Villa party were famished and thirsty. They were supplied with food and water by the Americans. The Americans also furnished them with water. The Americans also furnished them with water.

lashed and though the United States soldiers were strictly forbidden to give food or water, the Mexicans rejoined:

of Carranza troops reported coming from that direction under command of Gen. Manuel Dignies.

back by a brisk small arms fire and series shells from a Villa gun still posted east of Agua Prieta.

So far as could be ascertained, Villa had just one gun on the east. This sent several shells over the town.

Withdraws Whole Army.
Gen. Villa, forced by hunger, thirst and a scanty supply of ammunition to abandon his plan for an immediate assault on Agua Prieta, commenced Withdrawing his army early this morning and shortly after 9 o'clock most of his force were on the way to Anivacachi pass, 12 miles southwest.

It is his apparent intention to reach water, which is plentiful farther

Gen. Mendez, with a force of about 1500 men, has been holding the pass

ONE PERFECTLY GOOD MULE
A VICTIM OF THE BATTLE
Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 2.—"Battle of Agua Prieta" in one respect has been like the famous battle of the Marston and pulled out a handful of raw corn and wheat.

A large supply of flour and corn is available for villa at Naco, Sonora, it is said. Some of this reached him last night, but not enough for all his men.

surrounding area. American officers believe that all danger of an-

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 4.)

Don't Forget The Giant Serenadum Concert

SATURDAY at noon, the Giant Serenadium and the two callopes of the Sells-Floto-Buffalo Bill will visit show and circus will give a concert in front of The Herald office. This will be worth hearing, for the Giant Serenadium is the only one of its kind in the United States. The big steam callopo is the most musical in the world, so musicians say. The gasoline propelled. Lilliput is also noted for its sweetness of tune. The concert will be worth hearing. Don't forget: 12 o'clock is the hour; Saturday is the day; The Herald is the place.

compositions on "Why We Love Buffalo Bill." They should be confined to 100 words. Twenty-five dollars in cash and fifty circus tickets are to be awarded.

Remains the Victor
